FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

World Gym Reports June Revenue growth of 10.89% and Record Revenue for H1 2025

Taichung, Taiwan, July 9, 2025 —World Gym Corporation (2762.TW), Taiwan’s premier fitness chain, reported a record-breaking consolidated revenue of NTD $5.28 billion for the first half of 2025, with June contributing NTD $904 million, up 10.89% from June 2024.

The company recently soft-launched its innovative online enrollment platform, attracting over 500 members. This platform provides a fast, convenient, and transparent way for users to begin their fitness journey, underscoring World Gym’s commitment to accessibility. A full launch is planned for later this year together with a revamped website.

In Taiwan, World Gym is expanding with pre-sales for its Zhubei Huaxing Sport branch in Hsinchu County starting in July. This facility introduces a 200-ping (7,000-square-foot) Kid’s World learning and activity center, a first for the Hsinchu market. Additionally, this month, the company will open its second Chiayi City location, a full-service fitness club featuring swimming and basketball facilities. These openings mark 10 new clubs in 2025, with five more planned by year-end.

On the global stage, World Gym secured a Master Franchise Agreement for 50 locations in Brazil and is set to debut its first Thailand branch in H2 2025. The company is also integrating AI and digital tools to enhance operational efficiency.

“Our exceptional H1 performance and the enthusiastic response to our online platform fuel our momentum,” said company president John Caraccio. “With strategic expansions in Taiwan, Brazil, and Thailand, paired with cutting-edge digital solutions, we’re poised for sustained growth.”
