World Gym Corporation (2762.TW) Announces August 2026 Revenue of NT$990 Million Marking the Second-Highest Monthly Revenue in History

【September 9, 2026】World Gym Corporation (2762.TW), Taiwan's largest fitness operator and owner of the global World Gym brand, today announced that its consolidated revenue for August 2026 as $990 million (US$30.9 million). This represents an 0.1% monthly growth, and a 5.21% growth compared to the same period last year, achieving the second-highest monthly revenue in the company's history.

Month on month revenue growth was primarily driven by increasing membership revenue which rose approximately 1% over July. For the first eight months of the year, the company's cumulative revenue reached $7.74 billion (US$242 million), representing a year-on-year increase of 8.44%, with growth in membership revenue (10.12%) outpacing growth in personal training revenue (6.89%).

15 New Locations

The company is in the midst of an accelerated expansion phase, adding 6 new corporate owned locations year to date, with an additional 9 new clubs currently in presale or starting presale by year end, including its first full service location in Bangkok, Thailand. The new locations are expected to add significant momentum to both revenue and operating income as they go online and ramp up through the remainder of the year.

New Pilates and HYROX Programming

New programming initiatives including Pilates reformer training and world-renown HYROX international race event training are also being rolled out across World Gyms in the APAC region. Pilates programming, already a staple at World Gym Australia's 60 locations, has now been launched in 44 Taiwan locations with another 30 being added by year end. At the same time, World Gym is the largest fitness partner of HYROX in the APAC region, and is currently adding training equipment and facilities in all if its 141 Taiwan locations. The initiatives are part of a year-long effort to expand the brand's appeal to new fitness segments, while providing current members with more professional options to meet their exercise and lifestyle needs.
